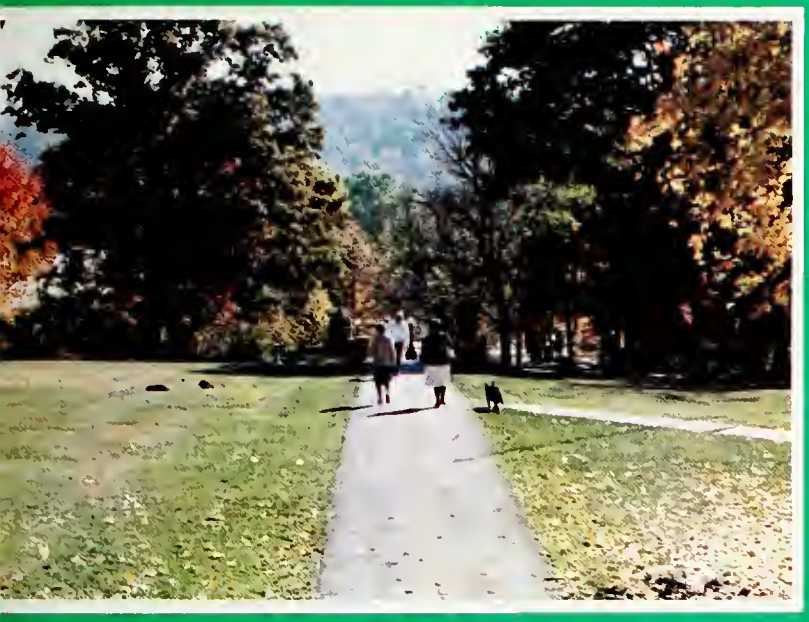
Capture the moment
Carry the day
Stay with the chase
As long as you may

The Innocent Age



Follow the dreamer,
The fool, and the sage
Back to the days of
The innocent age

Storybook endings
Never appear
They're just someone's way of Leading us here

Waiting for wisdom
to open the cage
We forged in the fires of
The Innocent Age

Back at the start
It was easy to see
No one to own to Nowhere to be

Deep in the heartlands
A sad memory
Calls to me
(Calls to me)

Fretful horizons
Worrisom skies
Tearful misgivings
Burning your eyes

Yearnings unanswered
Reckon the wage you
Pay to recapture the innocent age.
— Dan Fogelberg

Friend, we've laughed
When humor had Passed
Friend, you listened with Closed lips while
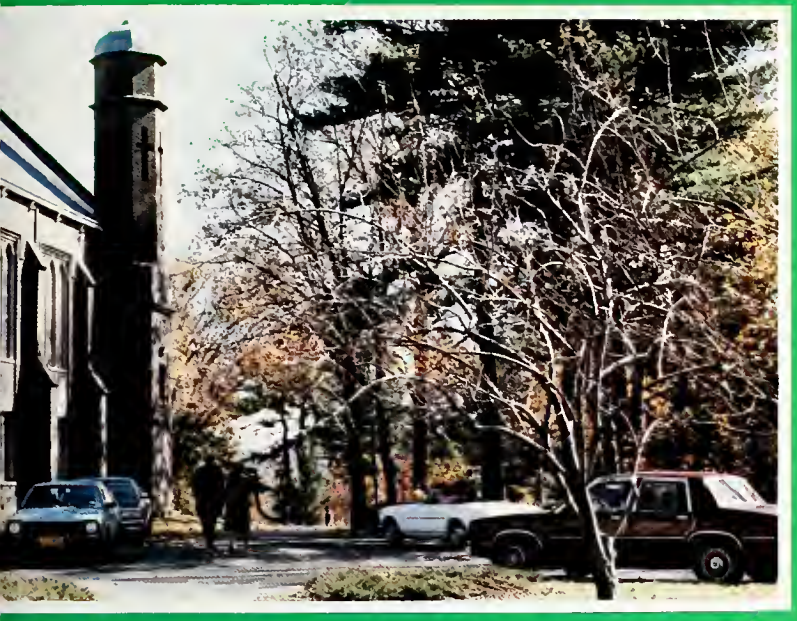
Opening your heart



Friend, you felt my sorrow
And we form one
Tear

Man's youth is a wonderful thing:
It is so full of anguish and of magic and he never comes to know it as it is, until it has gone from him forever
— Thomas Wolfe

Bethany Bison Touchdown!

Coach Ault looks over the men

"It will be a rebuilding season," said Coach Don Ault at the beginning of the 1981 football season. But, even Ault couldn't have guessed that his young club would post a 5-2 PAC record and 7-2 overall record in 1981.

It took a two-point conversion by Thiel College with only one minute left in game four to break Bethany's 17 game winning streak. After a loss to Carnegie-Mellon University the following week, Bethany came back to win the last four games and finish in second place in the conference.

The Bethany football team has accumulated a 22-5 record under Coach Ault over the past three years. Ault resigned his position in December to take over the Head Coaching position at Slippery Rock College. Wallace Neel was appointed to take his place.

The Bethany Bison Soccer team did one outstanding job this year. Under the coaching of John Cummingham, the team finished out the season with a 8-4 first place record PAC conference and continued on to the playoffs. They won the first round, but were beaten in round two.

As a result of their excellent talents, eight players were placed on the all-conference team.

Many of the players will be leaving this year, but there are many fine young players who will carry on the team's determination to win.

Heads up!

Women's Tennis

A. Carter, M. Caldwell, C. Newmeyer, T. Weiss, M. Gatungo, A. Celona, K. Heyde, S. Kelley, J. Bender, L. Holmes, B. Gospodarek, M. Fiske

Under the supervision of Mary Ellen Fiske, the women's tennis team put on a fine show this season.

With captain Beth Gospodarek and top doubles partner Christy Newmeyer, the two placed second in the Pacific Women's Conference tournament.

First singles player, freshman Kimberly Heyde had an outstanding season. The team is young but strong and they are hoping for a more successful season next fall.

Field Hockey

S. Dowart, L. Paquette, E. Reading, C. Crawford, K. Borelli, L. Reinert, K. Engel, S. Bowen, E. McCormick, D. Palermo, K. Denfeld, M. Berwinkle, G. Ridgeway, D. Jackson, K. Daniels, L. Romanasky, L. Mackinnon, Johanson, J. Bender, B. Yurek, E. Howes, D. Hutchinson

The women's field hockey team had another successful season in 1981, obtaining for the fifth time in a row the Pennwood West Conference Championship.

Coach Sally Dowart led the team to an over-all record of 8-3. This year Leeann Paquette, Valerie Morris, and Eileen Reading served as captains. Eileen was also the highest scorer and received the Most Valuable Player.

Cross Country

P. Krasinski, A. Kon, T. Ogurcak, R. McCarthy, D. Dichristina, M. Maag, T. Henningsen, S. Harvey, B. Calvert, M. Swiger, J. Wolf, D. Wottle

The cross country team did not have any captains this season, however, they had an outstanding season.

Under the coaching of Dave Wottle, the team placed fourth in the P.A.C. and had an overall record in dual meets of seven wins and two losses.

Among the outstanding runners, Barry Calvert finished third in the conference. Also, Phil Krasinski and Ray McCarthy entered the national meet for cross country runners.

Swimming

J. Marsteller, A. Clark, J. Gray, J. Faber, T. Weber, D. Ault, K. Gillett, J. McGowan, D. Corkery, M. Palmieri, A. Smith, J. Flynn, H. Busse, A. Jordan

Unfortunately, the team had a rather dismal season. They finished the season with a 1-11 record.

Lead by Coach John McGowan and captains Andy Clark and Judy Flynn, the team finished sixth in the Presidents' Athletic Conference. During the P.A.C.'s the team accumulated the most points it has done in the past 14 years.

The team is young and strong and is looking forward to a winning season next year.

Pull! Pull!

The team may not have had the best record overall, 1-3, but they were able to finish third in the Presidents' Athletic Conference.

The team continues to have outstanding members. This year was no exception. Senior Jeff Lampson placed second in the shot put while Dan Sigler took second in the pole vault.

Freshman Winston Britton had an outstanding season finishing second in the 100 and 200 yard race. He, along with Marty Maag, Alex Kon and Matt Tice, placed second in the one mile relay.

The team is looking for another strong and competitive season next spring under the coaching of John McGowan.

Men's Tennis

J. McDevitt, K. Rice, D. Miller, B. Bosh, C. Metzger, J. Kurey, T. Buxton, D. Lees, M. Ward

The team had a rough season this year and the weather wasn't much help. Many of their scheduled games were rained out.

However, under the coaching of Joe Kurey, the team was able to place fourth in the P.A.C.'s.

The top singles player and captain Kevin Rice made it to the semi-finals during the tournament.

The team is hoping for a better record next season and with the young team they have, the experience will follow.

It came down to Bethany's final game of the season at CMU. Alleghany was also playing its final game at Cleveland. Both teams were looking to play each other in the conference tie-breaking game two days later.

After the win against CMU, the team heard that John Carroll had defeated Alleghany to give the Bisons the P.A.C. crown.

A supposedly rebuilding year for the Bisons turned out to be a banner year for Coach Dafler's squad. The Bisons finished the year with a 15-9 record and a 11-3 conference mark and an NCAA playoff bid.

The year was highlighted by Jim Paige scoring his 1,000th career point and being named the Presidents' Athletic Conference Player of the Year. Coach Dafler was named Coach of the Year along with his second trip to the NCAA Division III playoffs

M. Fiske, C. Koellner, M. Milinski, T. Swinehart, D. Grande, K. Heyde, H. White, J. Davis, B. Yurek, E. Reading, J. Montegomery, R. Thompson, A. Bertol

This was the year for champion teams, and this team was no exception. For the first time, the women's basketball team captured the P.W.C. crown.

The captains this season were Terry Swinehart and Michelle Milinski. The team was able to compile a season record of 12-7 overall and 11-1 in conference games.

The members received some outstanding awards. Senior Terry Swinehart scored her 1,000th career point and was named to the first team All Conference. Along with her was freshman Robyn Thompson also named to the first team All Conference. Eileen Reading was named to the second team All Conference.

The team was a success and will be a sure team to watch next season.

Once again, the team takes on a new coach. This year, Donny Morehouse, an Bethany Alumnus, came in to take the team to a great season.

Even though freak weather conditions have cancelled a few games, it hasn't dampened the spirits.

The team's captains for this season are Ken Gongola, Tom Reabe and Ed Monahan. The team has a shot at the P.A.C.'s this season and they're working hard to get there.

The girls gave it their best shot and they didn't do too bad. At the closing of the season, they stood at 3-6-1 in conference games.

The captains for this year were Eileen Reading and Cindy Craft. Eileen was the leading homerun hitter and the best defensive player.

Other outstanding players include Margy McCartney who had the highest hitting average.

The team is young and with a little experience, they can go far. There's a lot of fresh talent on the team.

Former President Ford speaks at Convocation

Ford attends a press conference in Phillips Hall

On April 27, 1982, Gerald R. Ford spoke on Bethany campus. The main topic was American Politics in the 1980s.

Ford spent one day attending open discussion classes, speaking at formal Convocation, and attending a luncheon for the college's student leaders.

Ford hit on such topics as the defense budget, nuclear disarmament, and education cutbacks.

May Morning Breakfast

Lee Smedley sings a medley of love songs during May Morning Breakfast

The setting was perfect — a new cool morning set aside to honor the graduating women.

The menu consisted of fresh strawberries and cream, eggs and ham, and scrumpscious peacn rolls.

Speakers for the breakfast included Susan Carse, who gave the prayer, Gina Taibi, who gave the toast to the seniors and Karen Ward, who was toastmistress.

The guest speaker was Joan Martin Nicholson who is the Senior Liaison Officer for the United Nations Environment Programme.

The entertainment for the morning was provided by Lee Smedley who was accompanied on the piano by senior Scott Prouty.

The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra swings into action

Bethany College was one of 40 independent colleges to present affiliate arists. Mitchell Korn was on campus April 12-17.

During his visit, Korn held several workshops with a public performance on April 17.

Korn is a 12-string guitarist who has mastered a wide range of musical styles. During his stay, he lectured regarding himself and his work.

Balloons were everywhere and the sun was shining. What more could anyone ask for Homecoming Day. The day kicked off with the Bethany Bisons playing John Carroll in football.

Next came the annual Homecoming Float competition. The floats were based on the theme "Come and Take a Sentimental Journey." The Kappa Delta sorority took first prize with a camouflaged tank and soldiers.

Then the moment everyone was waiting for — the crowning of the Homecoming queen. This year it was awarded to Miss Terry Zabrucky.

Like always, the Homecoming dance was held in the main dining room.

Blood Drive

Tim Treasurer gets a blood test

Mark Sciegaj sets his mind on something else

Each fall and spring, the Bethany community holds a blood drive that is sponsored by the Red Cross.

Dr. John Hull, who often is the faculty member in charge of the drive, is very pleased with the turnout each time.

The results from the Spring donations showed that approximately 200 people showed up to give blood. Out of the group, 40 participants were there for the first time.

Hull was excited to say that 144 pints of blood were given.

Bid Day

Zeta sisters welcome a new pledge

The Phi Taus were on hand to escort their new pledges to the house

Tension filled the air as 4:00 drew near. The scene was Richardson Hall and Commencement Hall. The day was February 12. It was Bid Day.

Bid Day is always a way to drive the houses and freshman together. There are parties and singing, laughing and crying.

After the pledges received their bids, they were met by their new brothers and sisters who were waiting to take them back to the house for Greek activities.

Snow Carnival

The McDiarmid house takes first prize with a Unicorn

A day that every student dreams about — a weekday without classes. Well, on March 3, Bethany was hit by a snowstorm that dumped over four inches on the ground. At Bethany, when this happens, all classes are cancelled and they call it Snow Carnival Day.

Throughout the day, people were busy building snow sculptures to win a prize. They were also busy having snowball fights. The day ended with an all-campus dance.

Spring Weekend

Each second semester, the College hosts a campus-wide spring weekend. This year, the weather agreed with the event as it was sunny and warm for the concerts.

The group, The Association, kicked the weekend off. They played their hits such as "Cherish" and "Windy."

The weekend continued with a concert in the Alumni Fieldhouse with Gary U.S. Bonds performing.

The weekend came to a close with an outdoor concert by Gene Cotton who was at Bethany two years ago.

Aah, a time to reflect on that paper!

At Alpha Xi our cry was uncanny
This year was for our dear Miss Annie
While three of our sisters traveled worldwide
'do you see what I see? echoed houswide
Tipping our hats to the Chinese cooks
At OWU, 'do it for the duck, really got some looks
Our own flower shop was founded
While our GPA really rebounded . . .

Glenda the Good Witch appeared at Halloween
Even non-preps ordered from L.L. Bean
'I don't give a damn about my bad reputation'
Oh, silly me, country clubs were such a temptation

McDonald's cured our late night smashes
To prepare us for the next night's bashes
At Christmas Formal we saw red garters
But the mistletoe was only for starters . . .

Punt is the end call we're allways giving
But Alpha Xi will keep on living.

In past years, the Beta Theta Pi fraternity has held marathons to raise money for their fellow brothers who have been injured.

In Spring, 1980, pledge Dean Burton was injured in an automobile accident.

His brothers sponsored a marathon to raise money to help pay Dean's medical expenses. There were able to raise $3,000. Well done!

The brothers of Beta Theta Pi work hard for what they have. Take for instance, they took 22 new pledges on Bid Day.

Furthermore, they've dedicated themselves, both physically and mentally to help those in need.

There have been many parties and fun on Spring Weekend. The brothers really know how to kick up their heels.

Phi Mu

Sisterhood: friends forever!!

Over the past year, the Phi Mus have shared many things, there was never a dull moment. As we sang "Stop In the Name of Love" and N.P. Weekends came about at least once a month. The aroma of popcorn was ever present as were many of us in front of the TV watching The Guiding Light. The boat, the D-Mobile transported us everywhere including to Cannan Valley (We're There) and Salt Fork Lake.

"Let's Play" meant spur of the moment parties and country clubs, happy hour at the Glassworks, or drinking a beer on your head. Studies? "It doesn't really matter" either does the Fairness Doctrine or the Heiny Berreli Theorem because we were all schizophrenic — catatonic anyway.

Boys___or do they? See ya, Sue and Terry on Homecoming court . . . three RAs, later — bye. I need a tow truck . . . four senior fellows . . . think pink Phi Mu. Let's all drink to Mother Earth because we may never pass this way again. L.I.O.B.

Sigma Nu is rebuilding image wise as well as physically. The Nus have boosted their grade point average to be one of the best on campus this year. The house is also planning a complete renovation project to prepare for its 100th year anniversary.

Through the year, the Nus have shown pride in their respected sports. Doug Bailey, co-captain, led the Bison football team to an impressive season along with teammates Doug Shaw, Mike LeDonne, Mike Cindric, Bob Abbiatici, and of course coaches Pri and Ray. Soccer player Jeff Flick saw his team reach the finals in the NCAA district finals, ending a fine four-year career for him.

Then came the EN Decent Exposure where long coats were the main attire. Bowery Brawl 1981 was definitely a sight to see.

In January many seniors fulfilled their four-year long dream of passing comps. Congratulations Fran, Jamie, Marty, Phil, Eric (Space), Mark (Moon), Flick, and Rossmo.

Then came second semester. The Nus took 22 pledges which will strengthen the house for at least another year.

Baseball season finally came and captain Ken Gongolai along with Tony Bisutti helped the Bisons to a fine 1982 season. Marty Maag and Mark Swiger returned to the Bethany track team as record holders and to a fine senior year.

Many things happened throughout the year. Fran found his future in a girl named Carol. Marty, the marathon man, started track season in the first semester and finally met his match. 'O' the bookie kept some lucky people in the money while Little Abby, Scott and Buckethead made a road trip to Illinois to visit their SAE friends.

1981-1982 was a good year for President Poca. He accomplished many things that people thought were impossible. Sigma Nu in '82 with 22 seens to be a very good year. Good luck to all the new Sigs.

Woolery

The Wool . . . where nobody has a real name. Nobody comes to our parties. And nobody cares.

Bonehead, Cool Ray, Geng, and Ogie (part-time member) ran and ran . . . and then bored everyone talking about it! The Reverend, Carv, "J", Andy Kreamer and Wierd Joe put on the pads every Saturday even though Carv and Joe were kickers. Tomahawk studies . . . Plugger and Tracy played for John Cunningham and his band of cut throat Canadians, and "The Park" "The Wall" and Richie Cunningham took to the basketball court . . . Squal had his B.O.M. Club . . . Cable man fixed the cable and our TVs while Big man made his coaching debut . . . Donny imitated a hermit . . . the dead cube remained dead . . . Gregor was a lady killer . . . Aldo went from President to ex-president here . . . C.G. was a feminist . . . Dan-Dan hated anyone different . . . Malt, Chisel, Petro, DeAbuser, Dietzy, and Weaves drank and play IM sports for the house . . . in that order . . . Popcorn Pat and Juan Ortega made a strange pair of roomies . . . and we hardly ever saw Slo . . . except at parties.

And we've still got that damned Woolery Cup . . . even if we don't have color TV or a washer and dryer.

The Wool . . . NOBODY DOES IT BETTER!
